[REDACTED]

Informant advised that FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI has recently

b7D

one of his night clubs in downtown Milwaukee. Informant indicated that Gallagher's has declined into a run-down condition and BALISTRIERI brought in some equipment from one of his night clubs which is no longer in operation and, in addition attempted to improve plumbing and lavatory facilities. Informant stated that not nearly enough money was spent to attract any additional business.

According to informant, BALISTRIERI is having difficulties making his downtown night clubs pay off and the informant was of the opinion that it was BALISTRIERI's present business policies which have been causing the lack of customers in these night clubs. BALISTRIERI has given orders to all of his bartenders that they are to substitute a cheap grade of whiskey whenever any mixed drinks are ordered. Customers are aware of this policy and, as a result, seldom return to BALISTRIERI's clubs. BALISTRIERI is blaming poor entertainment for the lack of business and it is the opinion that BALISTRIERI and his poor business policies are the result of lack of customers.

[REDACTED]

b7D

The over-all operations of BALISTRIERI's night clubs appears to be run by BALISTRIERI's brother PETER FRANK BALISTRIERI but, according to informant, PETER has very little to say re business policies. In the operation of Gallagher's all monies are handled by BALISTRIERI's nephew JOSEPH BALISTRIERI. All maintenance and cleaning up of these night clubs is under the direction of FRANK STELLOH.

Informant indicated that the Informant advised that he had received information that FRANK BALISTRERI was out of town during the period of 3/28/69 thru 4/2/69. BALISTRERI visited his attorney in Washington, D. C. and then took his two daughters for a short vacation in New York City. According to the informant, BALISTRERI returned with a $300 suede coat for his wife in an effort to smooth over the domestic difficulties he has been having in the recent past.

The informant advised that ANTHONY "Sheriff" CEFALU died of a heart attack on 4/13/69. The informant attended the wake for CEFALU on 4/14/69, and noticed the following were also at the wake:

Synopsis: Subject continues as maintenance man for FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI, head of Milwaukee LCN family, at restaurant King's IV, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Subject continues to reside in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

- C -

DETAILS:

Personal observations at 2613 South 92nd Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, disclosed subject continues to reside at this address.

Personal observations at the King's IV Restaurant, 722 North Water Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, have disclosed subject's presence.

MI T-1 advised during March, 1969, that subject was observed engaging in conversation with WALTER "BLACKIE" BROCCA at the Belmont Coffee Shop, corner of West Wells and Fourth Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. BROCCA has been employed by FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI, head of the Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra (LCN) family, in the construction of the King's IV Restaurant as well as FRANK STELLOH.

MI T-1 further advised that FRANK STELLOH has also been acting as a bouncer at the King's IV.

MI T-2 advised during, April, 1969, that ANTHONY "SHERIFF" CEFALU had died of a heart attack on April 13, 1969, and that among those present at the wake on April 14, 1969, was FRANK STELLOH.

the members of the Chicago family did not want to create a commotion in the Milwaukee family at this time and would let the situation take its normal course when BALISTRIERI goes to jail.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] CAMINITI would not consider taking the job as boss of the Milwaukee family when BALISTRIERI goes to jail [REDACTED] CAMINITI would do anything to jeopardize his present position with the Teamsters Union.

The informant advised [REDACTED] GUS CHIAVEROTTI, who is a partner in a discount house handling distress merchandise with [REDACTED] they purchase much of the distress and bankrupt merchandise from a company in Chicago, which is financially controlled by FELIX ALDERISIO.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] members of the Chicago LCN family now refer to FRANK BALISTRIERI as a "Mamaluke,"

b7D

which in Sicilian means idiot. They feel that BALISTRIERI should go to jail much in the same way ALDERISIO did and not be the cause of all the publicity which has resulted recently from BALISTRIERI's court actions.

According to the informant, BALISTRIERI is in apparent poor financial shape at this time as his nightclubs are costing him money and business is very poor. He apparently is receiving no help from the Chicago family since ALDERISIO is in prison. Information noted that the recent publicity in which BALISTRIERI's nephew, JOSEPH BALISTRIERI, went to jail, has also served to deflate BALISTRIERI's image among the members of the family.

The informant advised that WALTER BROCCA was still working remodeling the proposed liquor store on Ogden Avenue, along with FRANK STELLOH. He noted that recent newspaper publicity had indicated the City Licensing Commission would not grant a building permit for this liquor store inasmuch as the property was due to be torn down in the near future for freeway construction.

[REDACTED]

BALISTRIERI mentioned to the informants that he has been given plenty of headaches by recent raids at his various nightclubs by the State Tax and Criminal Investigators. He also mentioned that because of these many business problems, he was going to "step down." BALISTRIERI did not elaborate further on this comment, but the informant believed this was an indication that BALISTRIERI was contemplating relinquishing his position as boss of the Milwaukee LCN family at some future date. Informant noted that in order for BALISTRIERI to do this, he would have to call a meeting of the entire family.

The informant [REDACTED] who works as a dealer in a gambling casino in Las Vegas, Nevada, was recently in Milwaukee on a visit and [REDACTED] back to Las Vegas with him for a short vacation. The informant did not know the purpose of [REDACTED] visit to Milwaukee. The informant advised that [REDACTED] recently told him that he was contacted by FBI Agents regarding his gambling activities with FRANK LEO SANSONE. At the time the Agents came to his office, [REDACTED] was in conference with another bookmaker, whom he did not identify, and this individual was forced to leave by the back door when the Agents entered.

b7D

Informant still believes FRANK BALISTRIERI is in exceedingly poor financial condition at the present time, and it is rumored he is no longer receiving any financial help from the Chicago family since the incarceration of FELIX ALDERISIO.

The informant said JERRY DI MAGGIO was layed off from his job at the Schlitz Brewery and tried to go to work for VINCE MANIACI; however, MANIACI told him to check first with FRANK BALISTRIERI. The informant understood JERRY DI MAGGIO was subsequently put back to work as a bartender at the Downtowner.

CAUTION SHOULD BE UTILIZED IN THE HANDLING OF THIS INFORMATION, AND IT SHOULD NOT BE DISSEMINATED UNLESS PARAPHRASED TO PROTECT THE IDENTITY OF THIS INFORMANT.

On November 3, 1971, MI T-1 advised STEVE DE SALVO eliminated FRANK STELLOH as a maintenance and clean-up man in night clubs controlled by FRANK BALISTRIERI.

On October 25, 1971, MI T-2 advised that the recent trouble between FRANK STELLOH and AUGGIE CHIAVEROTTI has now cooled off, as they were both contacted by members of the Milwaukee Police Department.

On January 29, 1972, January 30, 1972 MI T-2 advised that FRANK STELLOH in the past had been utilized by FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI, boss of the Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra (LCN) family, as a "muscle man". STELLOH is believed to have been a participant in the last gang killing attributed to the Milwaukee LCN family, which occurred in 1962 in Kenosha, Wisconsin. Thereafter, STELLOH was utilized by BALISTRIERI as a maintenance and cleanup man for the various nightclubs in Milwaukee which BALISTRIERI controlled. Since the closing of BALISTRIERI's nightclub, The Scene, and since BALISTRIERI started serving a Federal prison term for Income Tax Evasion, STELLOH has been dismissed as the maintenance man for the remainder of BALISTRIERI's nightclubs.

MI T-2 advised STELLOH is exceedingly perturbed with FRANK BALISTRIERI, indicating BALISTRIERI had used him in the past and now had cast him aside. Informant advised STEVE DE SALVO has recently been in contact with GUS CHIAVEROTTI, a known fence operating in Milwaukee.

[redacted]

Informant noted STEVE DE SALVO was recently involved in an automobile accident in Brookfield and was given a traffic citation.

The informant [redacted] members BENNY DI SALVO and NICK COLLURA, [redacted] [redacted] under STEVE DE SALVO in the Milwaukee family organization.

b7D

The informant noted that it was possible that FRANK BALISTRERI was reorganizing the setup of the Milwaukee LCN Family, changing soldiers from one Capodecina to another. Informant was aware that BALISTRERI had been making individual contacts with the members of the Milwaukee LCN Family.

JOE GUMINA left Milwaukee on 7/14/72 for a tourist trip to Italy.

Informant said GUS CHIAVEROTTI and FRANK STELLOH have been very friendly with a Milwaukee bookie who is presently on probation whose first name is [redacted] but whose last name is unknown. [redacted] had utilized Milwaukee attorney [redacted] in his past court cases.

b6
b7D

Informant also said that GUS CHIAVEROTTI has been making several trips to Chicago lately where he meets with members of the DE STEFANO group. CHIAVEROTTI mentioned JOE AIUPA has been taking over many of the activities in the Chicago LCN Family which were previously handled by Milwaukee's PHIL ALDERISIO. CHIAVEROTTI was of the opinion that TONY ACCARDO is the behind the scenes boss of the Chicago LCN Family at the present time.

[redacted]

The informant mentioned FRANK BALISTRIERI was upset with [redacted] but the reason for this was not known. [redacted] telephonically contacted BALISTRIERI and accused GUS CHIAVEROTTI for being responsible for a recent burglary of [redacted] office.

b6
b7D

According to the informant, FRANK BALISTRIERI is now driving a new red Cadillac which can be frequently seen at PETER BALISTRIERI's residence on Jackson Street. BALISTRIERI frequently meets with STEVE DE SALVO and other members of the Milwaukee LCN Family at Pitch's Lounge between 1:30 and 2:00 p.m. in the afternoon.

Informant noted [redacted] is handling a bookmaking operation from a travel service office on Wisconsin Avenue. [redacted] has been arrested in the past by state and local authorities for bookmaking activities. He believes [redacted] would have contact with [redacted] a well-known handicapper and attorney in Milwaukee. [redacted] Juneau Avenue, which is presently closed and which he is trying to reopen.

SAM FERRARA has been in poor health and is still brooding over the recent death of his wife. He doesn't talk very much and seldom leaves the Peacock Tavern, which he owns, and which is located on Van Buren and Brady Street.

VINCENT MANIACI is in trouble with the State over a recent conviction for selling liquor to minors. His tavern was closed for 30 days, he was fined $250 and was forced to put up $500 bond. State Revenue Agents are now inquiring into MANIACI's past tax reports.

JERRY DI MAGGIO recently returned to his job at the Schlitz Brewery. He has put on a lot of weight recently and also works part time as a bartender for NICK GENTILE at the New Yorker Bar on 5th and Michigan.

b7D

The informant was aware of the recent conviction of FRANK LEO SANSONE on ITWI charges in Federal court. SANSONE's attorney thought they were going to beat this case by attempting to prove that the Government's search was illegal but failed to do so and, as a result, SANSONE was convicted.

SALLY PAPIA, who operates Sally's Steak House, recently gave a party at the Ramada Inn where attendees were charged $25 a head. The money was made available to

[REDACTED]

The informant was contacted recently by STEVE DESALVO who instructed the informant that JOE GUMINA was no longer considered as a member of the Milwaukee LCN family and that [REDACTED]

The informant noted GUMINA is presently on a vacation in Sicily and Italy [REDACTED]. The informant believed FRANK BALISTRIERI, boss of the Milwaukee LCN family, was trying to muscle his way into a business being run by JOE GUMINA and [REDACTED].

b6
b7D

The informant was not aware of the type of business but felt GUMINA refused to give BALISTRIERI a piece of this operation which is the reason why BALISTRIERI was trying to kick GUMINA out of the Milwaukee LCN family. The informant was of the opinion that if BALISTRIERI persisted in placing pressure on GUMINA, he, GUMINA, would go to Chicago and contact members of the Chicago LCN family to protest BALISTRIERI's actions.

The informant understood FRANK BALISTRIERI is very upset with SALLY PAPIA who allegedly hired JIMMY JENNARO and FRANK STELLOH to work at her restaurant in Milwaukee without first getting approval from FRANK BALISTRIERI. Informant said he has heard rumors SALLY PAPIA has broken up with FRANK BUCCIERI although he has also heard PAPIA has opened a new restaurant in the Chicago area in partnership with BUCCIERI. The informant was contacted recently by [REDACTED] who in the past has been [REDACTED] in the Milwaukee area possibly working with [REDACTED] indicated he is owed a large amount of money by many of his betting customers and he [REDACTED] customers who owe him money.

The informant received information from [REDACTED] that Milwaukee bookmaker [REDACTED] took a trip to Chicago during the previous weekend for the purpose of visiting his parents. [REDACTED] allegedly broke up with his girlfriend and has moved out of his Prospect Avenue apartment. The informant said that [REDACTED] is once again conducting a sports bookmaking activity and the informant would attempt to determine [REDACTED] new location. Informant indicated it was his personal opinion that FRANK BALISTRIERI was receiving payoffs from [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who operate the [REDACTED] in Milwaukee. Informant estimated that BALISTRIERI was receiving at least $1,000 a month in payoffs and he believed they were going to pressure

[REDACTED]

BALISTRIERI in an effort to stop making these payments. The informant believed that neither [REDACTED] would admit making these payments if they were confronted by Bureau Agents. The informant noted that parents [REDACTED] [REDACTED] had been members of the Milwaukee LCN family many years ago.

b6
b7D

Informant also indicated JOSEPH BALISTRIERI is allegedly purchasing property on the east side of Milwaukee near the Shore Crest Hotel. Informant was not aware of the source of BALISTRIERI's financial backing but indicated that possibly this financial backing could be coming from the Dell Chemical Company in Menominee Falls, Wisconsin.

The informant said [REDACTED] recently returned from New Orleans and indicated his New Orleans office is not doing the business he had estimated in the past. [REDACTED] is thinking about closing this office. The informant heard recently that GUS CHIAVEROTTI has now resigned to the fact that he is going to prison indicating his pleas for probation based on bad health would not be accepted by the Appeals Court.

none of the members of the Rockford Family would attend the wake or funeral for fear of being placed under surveillance by local police and Federal authorities.

Informant advised that the entire membership of the Milwaukee LCN Family attended either the wake or the funeral of ALIOTO. (Family members are not being listed as they appear in above file dissemination)

Informant said, in addition to Milwaukee LCN Family members, Milwaukee Police Department Detective [REDACTED] was observed as well as [REDACTED] and FRANK SANSONE. Informant also mentioned that [REDACTED] of the Madison LCN Family were at the wake. Informant advised that FRANK BALISTRIERI has recently been in personal contact with GUS CHIAVEROTTI; however, informant did not know the reason for this contact. Informant also heard that FRANK STELLOH recently took a swing at CHIAVEROTTI in an effort to collect some money from him.

According to the informant, FRANK STELLOH and JIMMY JENNARO are still employed at Sally's Restaurant. The informant heard a Milwaukee bookmaker, [REDACTED] may have moved to Chicago.

AUGGIE PALMISSANO still accepts sports bets in the vicinity of Milwaukee and St. Paul Avenues; however, informant did not believe PALMISSANO was using the telephone in connection with his betting activities.

The informant had recently contact with FRANK SANSONE who indicated he has been unable to find employment but mentioned nothing about his recent gambling conviction in Federal court.

STEVE DE SALVO is presently still working for [REDACTED] however, their office was moved across the street from its old location on Green Bay Avenue. DE SALVO makes frequent trips to Chicago to finance citing jobs in connection with this employment.

The informant [REDACTED] FRANK BALISTRERI would make an effort to get a piece of ALIOIO's Restaurant since JOHN ALIOIO's death. due to the fact that [REDACTED] he feels BALISTRERI's efforts to obtain a piece of this restaurant may cause bad feelings among the other members of the ALIOIO family.

It is to be emphasized during these interviews that the interviews should be primarily directed towards the killing of LOUIS FAZIO. It is felt that by doing this, inroads and possible rapport can be established with various of the above-listed subjects so that future contacts and interviews can be conducted directing towards development of these individuals as PCI's.

Office: MILWAUKEE

Field Office File #: MI 92-315

Bureau File #: 92-6468

Title: FRANCIS CONRAD STELLOH

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: Subject continues to associate with known Milwaukee hoodlums; however, no specific information concerning any criminal activities has been noted. Subject resides in West Allis, Wisconsin.

DETAILS: On June 1, 1972, MI T-1 advised that he heard that the subject may have been in possession of a number of bonds which were rumored to be stolen. Whether or not they were negotiable was unknown.

On June 19, 1972, MI T-1 advised that he had no additional information regarding stocks and bonds that the subject might have had in his possession. However, it is rumored that the subject was advised by other hoodlums not to try to negotiate these bonds at any local bank because they were "hot."

On July 6 and July 14, 1972, source advised that subject and GUS CHIAVEROTTI had been in contact with Milwaukee bookies for some unknown reason.

On September 6, 1972, MI T-2 advised that the subject attended the funeral for the former boss of the Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra (LCN) JOHN ALIOTO. The source advised that the entire membership of the Milwaukee LCN were in attendance at that funeral. The source further advised that he heard that the subject was involved in an altercation with GUS CHIAVEROTTI concerning money.

On November 11, 1972, MI T-2 advised that the conflict between FRANK BALISTRERI and the subject continues. He further advised that the subject frequents WALTER BROCCA at his used appliance store at 1916 West Mitchell.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED]

At Milwaukee, Wisconsin

On September 27, 1972, FRANK STELLOH was observed with SAM DENTICE, JIMMY JENNARO, [REDACTED] FRANK "HOGAN" SANSONE, [REDACTED] PETER BALISTRIERI, FRANK BALISTRIERI, SAM CEFALU, TONY MACHI, aka TONY PETROLLE, [REDACTED] ANGELO ALIOTO, STEVE DE SALVO, and several other unknown males. The occasion for this meeting was a funeral for Milwaukee hoodlum LOUIS MARTIN FAZIO who was found murdered behind his home on September 27, 1972. These individuals were among approximately 1,000 persons who met at Guardalabene and Amato Funeral Home, Milwaukee.

b6
b7D

Following the viewing of the body in the funeral home, the procession traveled to St. Rita's Church at Cass and Pleasant Streets. The above group of Milwaukee hoodlums did not enter the church for the religious services. They walked two blocks west on Pleasant Street to Fazio's on Jackson, a bar and restaurant, which is owned by the Milwaukee FAZIO family of which the deceased was a member.

This group remained in the restaurant for approximately thirty minutes. When the religious service terminated, these individuals rejoined the larger group and joined the motor procession to the cemetery.

On November 24, 1972, Detective [REDACTED] West Allis Police Department, advised that [REDACTED] STELLOH sued [REDACTED]

Detective [] made available a confidential file which had been prepared in defense of the civil suit and this file shows that STELLOH started his criminal career in 1936 as a stick-up man, was finally convicted of six counts of armed robbery in 1937, and subsequently did eighteen years at Waupun State Prison. This file further indicates that while STELLOH was in prison, prison officials had to keep him in solitary confinement for twelve years because he was such a bad actor.

This file also indicates that when STELLOH was arrested in 1960, the first person he called after being taken into custody was FRANK BALISTRERI. The civil suit against the police officers and the defense against the criminal charge was handled by Milwaukee Attorney DOMONIC FRINZI.

[] advised that STELLOH now lives at 2613 South 92nd Street, West Allis, and [] has run into STELLOH several times in the past few years and he described STELLOH as "mellowed."

Informant advised that he believed the fire at BROCCA's was an accident due to BROCCA's carelessness and sloppiness; but he has not seen BROCCA since the fire, and advised he would check to see if there were any circumstances of a strange nature surrounding the fire.

TE noted that STELLOH either is not working or will not be working for long at Sally's Restaurant as SALLY is letting him go, giving him as a reason the fact that her father, SAM LAVORA, was taking over the restaurant and wanted STELLOH out.

TE stated that JIMMY JENNARO, who is presently working for Sally's Restaurant, is looking for a gun and silencer; and he is apparently quite nervous and worried for some reason. JENNARO is reportedly back living with his wife at their home in Brookfield, Wisconsin.

b7D

TE noted that FRANK BALISTRIERI has not been seen around town recently but has been at PETER BALISTRIERI's house on Jackson Street. TE stated that he did not believe that FRANK BALISTRIERI was too sick, but that he was suffering from attacks of asthma.

Informant stated that [REDACTED] that the Chicago boys were going to "take care of SAM DE STEFANO" due to DE STEFANO's trouble with the Jackson and Foreman murders in Chicago.

TE noted that FRANK BALISTRIERI has made statements to [REDACTED] and JIMMY JENNARO, since LOUIS FAZIO's death, that "You thought I was finished here, huh." Informant advised that the possibility existed that LOUIS FAZIO was killed by BENNY DI SALVO or HARRY DE ANGELO.

Informant had contact with SANTO MARINO recently at MARINO's tavern, and MARINO indicated he has had no contact with FRANK BALISTRIERI recently. MARINO made the statement that BALISTRIERI had thrown JOE GUMINA out of the Milwaukee Family due to the fact BALISTRIERI had attempted to get a piece of a business GUMINA was involved in with one [redacted] and GUMINA had refused to give him any of this operation.

Informant said the son of SAM FERRARA, who operates a tavern on Jackson and Lyon Streets, recently added a dining room to this tavern, and is apparently doing well.

The informant commented regarding the recent action in Federal Court where Judge MYRON L. GORDON dismissed Federal gambling charges against TOMMY MACHI, [redacted] and TONY MACHI. He felt that someone had influenced GORDON to dismiss these charges, but the informant had no definite information in this regard.

The informant heard VITO SEIDITA was recently forced to give up his driver's license because of bad eyesight.

Informant further advised GUS CHIAVEROTTI's business operation on Lincoln Avenue was burglarized recently, and a key was used to gain entry. CHIAVEROTTI is still being dogged by FRANK STELLOH.

The informant heard that the recent robbery at the home of Milwaukee bookmaker [redacted] which was reported in the amount of $500, was really in the amount of $20,000 in cash and jewelry. However, [redacted] was afraid to report the actual amount because of possible IRS problems if the correct amount was reported.

b6

Source advised that FRANK BALISTRIERI's nightclub, the Brass Rail, is now closed and that this was the result of FRANK BALISTRIERI's walking in one evening seeing the Brass Rail empty of customers and told them to close it. Source stated that everyone connected with the Brass Rail was sent over to the Center Stage. Source advised that the Center Stage is going under financial difficulty and that [redacted] was no longer connected with the Center Stage, as BALISTRIERI owed him $20,000 in back wages.

Source advised [redacted] is reportedly running the Center Stage for BALISTRIERI.

Source stated [redacted] and TOMMY MACHI were not meeting at Fazio's on Wells Street, since the availability of the telephone had been cut off by [redacted]

Source stated that [redacted] reportedly got $500 for setting fire to a warehouse, but he did not do it and asked someone else to do it for him. This individual could not do it either and obtained another individual to set fire to the warehouse, and they were supposed to split the $500 three ways. Source stated that after the fire, [redacted] reportedly paid off this individual and he in turn went to the police and told them about the arson, resulting in the arrest of [redacted] for the fire.

Government had no basis to call him, the subpoena was just a means of hassling him, and are concerned that they were fingered in Florida. [redacted] was very unhappy that [redacted] did not take the 5th before the Grand Jury and both [redacted] STEVE DE SALVO were angry that [redacted] testified that [redacted] is an employee or connected with the [redacted] in Chicago. [redacted] is generally falling into disfavor because he talks too much and is an "ego manic". DE SALVO feels that [redacted] is partially responsible for the failure of the New Orleans operation of Universal Builders.

b7D

Source advised that the Universal Builders is closing up mainly because of a change in Louisiana State Laws relating to either state regulation of the aluminum siding business or interest rates in financing jobs. [redacted] is minding the store and both [redacted] and DE SALVO are in Milwaukee. Source feels that they will not go back because they probably are in hot water with debts and will just "stiff" everyone.

b6

Source advised [redacted] FRANK STELLOH has been very close to DE SALVO for some reason. The association is closer than it has ever been.

Source advised that recently SALLY PAPIA called DE SALVO with a problem and DE SALVO assured her that he would resolve the problem.

Miscellaneous

[redacted] has been backing [redacted] and DE SALVO. [redacted] works for and is backed by the "Chicago outfit".

[redacted] of Chicago, is backed by the Chicago outfit and is now with another corp., possibly [redacted] Source explained that it is to the best interest of [redacted] and DE SALVO to have a contact inside a big corporation that they purchase building supplies from because the contact can okay credit purchases, and as they have done in the past, [redacted] has folded his corporation because he cannot pay off big suppliers, and reopens under a different name. If they did not have a contact in the big supplier, they could not get credit even under a different corporation name. For a kick back the inside man okays [redacted] line of credit.

Title: FRANCIS CONRAD STELLOH

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: Subject was laid off from work at Sally's Steak House in December, 1972, is currently drawing state unemployment, continues to associate with hoodlums and seems to be embroiled in a controversy involving Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra (LCN) boss, FRANK BALISTRIERI. Current location of subject uncertain at this time.

DETAILS:

On December 1, 1972, MI T-1 advised that BLACKIE BROCCA continues to be in the good graces of FRANK BALISTRIERI and usually tells FRANK what's going on in the community. Source advised he had not been able to learn any information concerning the fire at BROCCA's business on West Mitchell; however, the source stated it is rumored that BLACKIE may have burned the building down at the request of the building owner. (It is noted that the building which BROCCA operated

MI T-1 advised that FRANK STELLOH continues to supervise the maintenance and clean up at BALISTRIERI's night spots and is at Sally's Steak House after 2:00 every night cleaning up the bar and restaurant.

On November 30, 1972, MI T-2 advised that the subject and WALTER BROCCA are involved in some kind of a squabble with the La Cosa Nostra (LCN) leadership FRANK BALISTRIERI and STEVE DE SALVO and that the source was uncertain as to why the controversy; however, it may in some way involve the burning of WALTER BROCCA's business but there is no clear cut connection between the LCN leadership and the destruction of BROCCA's business. It is noted that for years STELLOH and BROCCA have been very close friends.

On December 23, 1972, MI T-2 advised that WALTER BROCCA set up a new business on South 2nd Street in Milwaukee just north of National Avenue and that STELLOH continues to associate with BROCCA. Source further advised that animosity between FRANK BALISTRIERI and FRANK STELLOH continues and there was some speculation that STELLOH might try to physically harm BALISTRIERI.

During the conversation with CHIAVEROTTI, which lasted approximately 45 minutes, CHIAVEROTTI discussed various associates of his such as FRANK STELLOH. Concerning STELLOH, CHIAVEROTTI advised that previously STELLOH had been giving him a lot of trouble and causing him much difficulty in his businesses. CHIAVEROTTI stated, however, that he recently told STELLOH to leave him alone and apparently made it very forceful. He further stated that STELLOH has not bothered him since. CHIAVEROTTI advised as he has not seen STELLOH since that time, he has no idea as to his whereabouts or activities.

Concerning the death of LOUIS FAZIO, CHIAVEROTTI stated that in his opinion it was done by FRANK BALISTRERI, not personally but through some other individual. CHIAVEROTTI gave as a reason for this murder the fact that BALISTRERI was trying to assert himself and reestablish himself as boss of the Milwaukee LCN family. CHIAVEROTTI apparently has a very low opinion of FRANK BALISTRERI and constantly referred to him in a derogatory manner. When questioned as to whom BALISTRERI would get to take care of LOUIS FAZIO, CHIAVEROTTI stated that the only one that would "have the guts" could possibly be FRANK STELLOH; however, he felt that the relationship between STELLOH and BALISTRERI was such that STELLOH would not do it for BALISTRERI. CHIAVEROTTI further pondered the question and then stated there was a possibility that perhaps a person such as [redacted] would not be above doing such a thing for BALISTRERI as he and BALISTRERI were very good friends and [redacted] was always trying to impress BALISTRERI.

b7c

During this interview, CHIAVEROTTI did not discuss any of his activities and no questions were put to him concerning his activities as it was not felt that this would be a proper time for such questioning.

It is felt by the writer that there is a very good possibility that CHIAVEROTTI will recontact the FBI and if he does so he would be a tremendous PC potential due to his vast knowledge of the organized crime groups in Milwaukee and also because of his associates in those groups. It is felt that this should be followed closely and pursued in order to gain every advantage in developing CHIAVEROTTI.

WALTER "BLACKIE" BROCCA was contacted at his used appliance business located at 722 South 2nd Street, Milwaukee. BROCCA was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents.

BROCCA was questioned about the recent murder of SAM DE STAFANO in Chicago. He said that he knew DE STAFANO, but had not seen him in some time and knew nothing of his death other than what was in the papers.

BROCCA was questioned about the murder of LOUIS FAZIO in September, 1972, and he said he could not understand why anyone would murder FAZIO because "FAZIO was such a nice peaceful fellow."

BROCCA advised that he has not seen FRANK STELLOH for some time. He explained that STELLOH was working as a night watchman for SALLY PAPIA at Sally's Steak House, but SALLY's father needed a job so STELLOH lost the job.

BROCCA advised that he does not really associate with FRANK BALISTRIERI "or any of those boys" any more because he does not go downtown any more.

BROCCA advised that he knows FRANK BUCCIARI from Chicago and from BUCCIARI's association with SALLY PAPIA.

BROCCA advised that he felt that the fire that destroyed his store on Mitchell Street was caused by a faulty furnace. He further advised that he does not feel that anyone is out to hurt him.

It was observed that the stock in BROCCA's store, which consists of used household appliances, was bigger than the stock in the old store and there were several new, but slightly damaged, refrigerators in stock.

MI 166-356

Source has advised he has known most of the members of the organized crime element in Milwaukee for many years and has assumed, particularly during the last couple of years, that STEVE DE SALVO is the real head of the mob in Milwaukee and that FRANK BALISTRERI is merely a figure head for the family.

Source indicates he is of the opinion that many people in Milwaukee who are in the criminal element tend not to respect BALISTRERI as he has made many business mistakes and is not said to be very shrewd in his dealings. On the other hand, according to the source, DE SALVO always remains in the background, never saying too much, but always carrying "a big stick". Source has seen FRANK STELLOH with DE SALVO on a couple of recent occasions and has not heard anything to the effect that STELLOH and BALISTRERI are "on the outs."

Source knows that when SAMMIE CEFALU conducted his bookmaking operation in Milwaukee, that CEFALU paid a percentage of his action directly to DE SALVO and it is significant to note that CEFALU was of the opinion that this money remained with DE SALVO and did not go to BALISTRIERI. CEFALU indicated this information to source and source has recently received information that SAM CEFALU is back in operation accepting baseball and horse bets.

PC has been targeted to gain further information regarding this, but it is recommended that MI 166-356 be reopened in order to investigate whether CEFALU is in fact back in his gambling operation. Source emphasized that he feels the reason that former Milwaukee bookmaker [redacted] left Milwaukee for Florida is that [redacted] tired of paying a percentage of his gross to DE SALVO. Case Agent of DE SALVO should note that perhaps [redacted] could be interviewed in Florida regarding this possible pay off by him to DE SALVO and informant could possibly provide [redacted] address in Florida.

Source advised [REDACTED] FAZIO [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] has heard further street talk to the effect that FIORE BUCCIERI, brother of FRANK BUCCIERI, both organized crime figures in Chicago, was responsible for the murder at the behest of FRANK BUCCIERI.

According to the source, he heard information to the effect that FAZIO owed FRANK BUCCIERI a great deal of money and was taking his time about paying the sum back. This issue along with several other factors lead to FAZIO's death; however, source could not speculate as to who was actually the hit man. Source emphasized the theory was purely street talk, but source is of the personal opinion that this is true. Source further advised he is very familiar with [REDACTED] and source is targeted to gain further information regarding the activities of SALLY PAPIA and her boyfriend FRANK BUCCIERI.

Informant stated that BENNY DE SALVO is presently working for a brewery, believed to be Schlitz, and is a hard-working individual who is not known to the informant to be engaging in any criminal or hoodlum activities.

The informant advised that JOE GUMINA is definitely out of the family and has been very vocal in his criticism of FRANK BALISTRERI, stating to the effect that if anything which would make a lot of money were going on in Milwaukee, BALISTRERI would have a fight on his hands and would probably be out.

Concerning the dissolving of the Madison Family, informant still has not been able to obtain any information verifying this and still believes that this is basically impossible because none of the Madison Family would be in agreement.

Informant stated that FRANK LA GALBO has publicly stated that he has not sold his restaurant to SALLY PAPIA in that she has not been able to come up with the money.

Informant advised that the two bars that were recently closed by Milwaukee PD. including the Tender Trap, are [redacted] and are run and under the names of other individuals.

Informant advised that JOE GUMINA and AUGIE MANIACI are presently "out of the family"; however, their status is such that reinstatement could be initiated at anytime as soon as their difficulties have been resolved. Informant advised that in MANIACI's case, he believed it would be necessary for him, MANIACI, to go to Chicago in order to get backing from some of the family members in Chicago.

Informant advised that concerning CHARLIE VINCE, he knew of nothing that VINCE was engaging in with BALISTRERI in Milwaukee and that VINCE was a gambler who liked to play poker and was known as a hit man. Source further advised that should any information pertaining to any activities come to his attention, he would immediately advise.

Informant advised that FRANK STELLOH was [REDACTED] somewhere outside of Milwaukee and that STELLOH meets with STEVE DI SALVO most every morning at the Universal Builders.

TE stated that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was rumored to be engaging in his own bookmaking operation. Source had no additional information concerning this operation at this time.

Details:

MI T-1, contacted in July, 1969, advised that subject meets WALTER "BLACKIE" BROCCA and BENNY DI SALVO each week day morning around 6:30 a.m. in the coffee shop at the Belmont Hotel, Milwaukee, for breakfast.

Spot checks of subject's residence at 2613 South 92nd Street, West Allis, Wisconsin, on October 4 and October 22, 1971, were met with negative results.

A review of records, Milwaukee Police Department, Bureau of Identification, on October 4, 1971, reflected that subject's last arrest was on February 4, 1960. On this date, subject was arrested for fornication by the West Allis, Wisconsin, Police Department.

A review of records, Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office, on October 4, 1971, reflected no record for subject. On the same date, a review of records, West Allis, Wisconsin, Police Department, reflected the following arrests for subject:

MI 92-315

February 4, 1960
March 11, 1963

January 7, 1964

Fornication Driving too fast for conditions Disorderly conduct, for shoplifting

On October 14, 1971, a review of records, Milwaukee County Register of Deeds, was conducted in an attempt to determine if subject had violated United States Code, Title 18, Section 1014, in the purchase of a home. At this time it was determined that his residence is a small four-unit apartment building, and that he was not the owner.

On October 20, 1971, Detective [redacted] Special Assignment Squad, Milwaukee Police Department, advised that subject is currently residing in a four-unit apartment building at 2613 South 92nd Street, West Allis, Wisconsin. [redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

On October 20, 1971, a spot check of 1912 and 1916 Mitchell Street was made. WALTER BROCCA was observed working there; subject, however, was not there at this time.

Source advised concerning speculation on whether STEVE DI SALVO was attempting a takeover, with assistance of STELLOH, of FRANK BALISTRIERI, that it is a definite possibility in view of the fact that when FRANK BALISTRIERI went to jail, DI SALVO was supposed to become head in the meantime; however, BALISTRIERI appointed his brother PETER and source felt that possibly DI SALVO has never quite recovered from the slight.

Source advised that BUSTER BALISTRIERI is no longer in Kansas City and is now working at the MGM building in Las Vegas, Nevada as is apparently all of the Milwaukee Italian element.

Source advised that [redacted] [redacted] is still having weekly junkets to Las Vegas to the Stardust Hotel for all of the gambling element in Milwaukee. Individuals such as [redacted] [redacted] are frequent users of these junkets for their trips to Las Vegas.
